

GMB TO CONSULT MEMBERS AT BMI ON POTENTIAL REDUNDANCIES AT THE COMPANY

The company has agreed with GMB that it will try to avoid compulsory redundancies

GMB today commented on proposals from BMI on restructuring and 600 potential redundancies.

Mick Rix, GMB National Officer said, “GMB met with BMI today over their announcement on potential redundancies and restructuring proposals. The company has stated that it is more than willing to deal with the proposals in an open and honest fashion with GMB. The company has also agreed to try to avoid compulsory redundancies.

GMB will now consult with all our members at BMI. GMB will explore all steps to help minimise the impact on the security of employment of GMB members. After we have consulted with our members we will act on their views and enter into a period of serious consultation with the company. “
